REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

Of Stoddard for the year 1896-97.

In accordance with the provisions of the statute, the School Board presents the following report: We are pleased to be able to report that a commendable degree of interest has been shown in a portion of our schools on the subject of education and a disposition to help in rendering our schools pleasant and profitable though but few can be said to take that deep interest, which is quite necessary to make them what they should be, and to enable us to realize to the fullest extent the countless advantage which our common school system is well calculated to afford. It is the design of this system to afford a respectable business education to all. Our public schools should rank among the most important interests of the town. But is it so? Our system of free schools is the pride and boast of New England, the foundation of our free institutions and the defence of a free government. The valleys and the hill-sides are dotted all over with school-houses, whose doors are thrown open alike to all the high and low, the rich and poor, regardless of color or nationality. An institution which is capable of doing so much to advance the civilization, refinement, prosperity and security of a community, appeals to you for a generous support.

The problem of education is one that assumes new phases with the change of time. New methods of dealing with educational matters are constantly coming up and it requires no little effort to keep up with the times. Our school privileges will still be inferior to the larger towns and cities of our country, when we have secured to our scholars all the advantages it is possible for us to give them, but if we can be so earnest in the use of what privileges we do have, as to gain the same results, the DISCIPLINE of study, which is the main thing after all, we have the greater honor. In order to know about a matter one must see for themselves—one cannot see through another's eyes; therefore parents must visit the schools to know for themselves how it is progressing.

Do not wait until the last day, for there is no remedy then for anything that has gone wrong. Become well acquainted with your teacher and school; make a confidant of her in the interests of your children sometimes, and you will be well repaid. Put forth the same efforts to familiarize yourself with school affairs as you would in a business venture and the day will not be far distant when poor schools and school troubles will be almost unknown and unheard of.

It is a matter of regret that singing is not often practiced in our schools. A few moments devoted to this exercise several times a day does much to soothe and harmonize the feelings of teacher and scholars.

Its natural tendency is to revive the spirits and restore the elasticity of the mind and to promote good nature and pleasant feeling. Some School Song books would be a needful addition to our school supplies another year.

Our youngest scholars need inexpensive supplies of pictures, letters, blocks, &c. to busy and amuse themselves with, as much as the older ones need books and charts. We hope some such things will form a part of the school supplies another year. The day is not far distant when our teachers will be required to be prepared to use the Kindergarten methods and gifts with the little children.

During more than six months that we do not have school, our Public Library ought to be utilized as a means of education with our oldest scholars. A taste for good reading now formed is a preventive of temptation and also a source of amusement and recreation not only now but in later years when all other means of recreation may be cut off. The report of the schools is as follows:

CENTER SCHOOL NO. 1.

Both terms of this school were taught by Rev. Geo. W. Ruland of Stoddard. The school was not a success. We hope to see a more comfortable and attractive school-room in this division before long. The pupils could be more easily managed in a room two thirds its present size. The Spring term consisted of 10 weeks, attended by 24 different pupils; average attendance, 21; instances of tardiness, 26; visits by School Board, 6; whole number of visitors, 31.

The Fall term consisted of nine weeks; attended by 26 pupils; average attendance, 21; instances of tardiness, 21; visits of School Board, 6; whole number of visitors, 7.

WEST STODDARD SCHOOL NO. 2.

The Spring term of this school was taught by Mr. Merton A. Farnsworth, of Washington, N. H. This school was noted for good order, studiousness, and thoroughness. Mr. Farnsworth had the happy faculty of enforcing strict order in the school-room, while being a companion for the boys in out-door sports. This term consisted of 10 weeks; number of pupils, 8; average number, 7; instances of tardiness, 2; visits of School Board, 6; whole number of visitors, 47.

The Fall term of this school was taught by Miss Helen C. Farnsworth, of Lancaster, Mass. This school was a success. The classes in history, physical geography and physiology were excellent. The primary class made very good progress. Length of school, 11 weeks; number of scholars, 8; average number, 8; visits by School Board, 6; whole number of visitors, 34.

SOUTH STODDARD SCHOOL NO. 3.

The Spring and Fall terms of this school were taught by Miss Emma E. Cutter, of Stoddard. Miss Cutter secured good order, thoroughly learned lessons, and the love and respect of her pupils. She is a live teacher, ever alert for learning or procuring whatever can benefit her scholars.

The Spring term consisted of 10 weeks, attended by 18 different scholars ; average number, 18 ; instances of tardiness, 1 ; visits by School Board, 6 ; whole number of visitors, 78.

The Fall term consisted of 12 weeks, attended by 19 pupils ; average number, 19 ; instances of tardiness, 1 ; visits of School Board, 6 ; whole number of visitors, 65.

We have schooled 57 scholars in town during the past year, at the rate of $8.73 per capita ; also, in the town of Sullivan at an average of $7.70. The three schools in town have aggregated 62 weeks, at an expense of $393.50 for wages and board.

Mrs. Messinger, one of the members of the board, resigned about Feb. 1 on account of sickness in her family, thereby causing a vacancy which has not been filled, as the business of the year was nearly completed.

ELIAS B. SMITH, } School Board
LIZZIE M. JEFTS, } of Stoddard.
